

Civil Rights First

Legal Rights Charity

control outcomes challenge human rights choice solutions rights autonomy accountability transparency resolution holistic respect equalities information fairness resources information person-centred

We aim to promote social justice with delivery to everyone in society through a valued, tailored advice and effective advocacy service.

Civil Rights First provides FREE advice and effective advocacy to all citizens in Scotland, including human rights and equalities. We have provided this service since our launch in May 2018. Our vision is to provide a gold standard service to the communities we serve. We deliver our much-needed service across Scotland bespoke to our clients' needs.

Providing Specialist Legal Advice/Effective Advocacy and Representation on the following:

- Human Rights
- Discrimination
- Housing issues including mortgage and tenancy
- Adaptations
- Social Justice
- Self-directed support
- Education
- legal advice – civil law
- Information on legal rights, human rights, and equalities legislation

How we can assist:

- Civil Rights First provides specialist advice and information on your legal rights.
- We undertake casework on your behalf to support resolution with complex issues.
- In some instances, we provide ADR, Authorised Lay Representation at court or tribunal.
- We can refer individual cases if beyond our scope.

Contact: 07703 410 584

admin@civilrightsfirst.co.uk